

About the Seminar

The major objective of this seminar is to brainstorm the process of structural transformation, factors affecting the process, efforts (or lack of it) by the state governments in this direction and also the role of opinion leaders in this context.

For the purpose, we intend to invite eminent scholars working on state economies with their research findings on individual states to share their perspective and help develop a broad consensus in this regard.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Guru Jambheshwar University of Science and Technology started its journey on October 20, 1995 under Haryana State Legislative Act No. 17 of 1995 at Hisar, Haryana. It is named after Guru Jambheshwar Ji Maharaj, a saint environmentalist of 15th century. The university aims at imparting education on the frontiers of Science, Technology, Social Science and Humanities. The University has emerged as a premier institute to inspire, motivate and nurture professional excellence. The NAAC has accredited the University as “A” Grade three times consecutively since 2002. The University has been granted graded autonomy. It is one amongst the 21 State Universities of the Country to have achieved this position. The university is spread on around 400 acres of lush green campus offering 55 Ph.D., M.Tech, B.Tech, PG and UG courses to around 8000 students on campus. The university has a strong and vibrant research culture with its H Index 82.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Economics was established recently in 2018 to promote quality research and teachings in economics in this part of the country. Presently the department has been offering Ph.D., M.Sc. and B.Sc. (Hons) programs in economics. The department focuses on developing synergistic relationship between creation of knowledge and skilled manpower with user industry, society and government.
