HSB Research Review

The Editorial

In the field of management, as the complexities of running issues show an increase, there is an impending need to bridge the consequence gaps concerning generation, dissemination and appliance of knowledge. This necessitates understanding where we, as management researchers, are coming from and the underlying influences in doing research. It also consists in taking a more reflexive approach to management research.

Haryana School of Business, Guru Jambheshwar University of Science and Technology, Hisar is committed to build up the culture of research and publication in management so that it may perform a leading role in inculcating the line of research and analysis in the young generation who aspire to compete with the best. For promoting qualitative and quantitative research-publication in global trends, HSB publishes a reviewed bi-annual journal, HSB Research Review. In changing scenario of business education around the Globe, there are convincing rationale to a B-school to publish a management journal that may cater to the needs of management scholars, business leaders, and practicing managers. HSB Research Review is an academic journal that provides an amalgamated outlook of management thoughts, empirical researches and management practices within and outside India. Further it aims at bringing together academicians and practicing corporate managers. This journal publishes papers that advance knowledge through research on current management issues and especially in the areas of marketing, finance, human resource management, operations management, information technology, general management besides macro issues of globalization and local trade. HSB Research Review is an academic dais to share ideas, promote and endorse the culture of research to generate evocative debates. Its intention is to guide the scholars to study and deliberate on diverse dimensions of management ideas or cases where there is scope for research. The journal invites and attracts best quality research papers from all parts of the globe and reaches to wide variety of readers. This journal is an intellectual piece of knowledge with extensive exposure that maintains balance between pure and applied researches.

This is the first issue of HSB Research Review, in which, research papers on different aspects like information technology, rural marketing, behavioural management, corporate governance and equity markets have been published after editing on the recommendations of referees. As a matter of a policy, the editorial board has decided to publish research papers, popular articles, case studies and book reviews of concurrent bearing in the HSB Research Review. The editorial board, however, does not own the views expressed by the authors in their papers but once published in this journal would become the copyrights of the HSB Research Review and the same cannot be reproduced without the prior written permission of editorial board. Hence, the journal is placed before the academia.

Guidelines for Manuscript-Contributors

HSB Research Review invites research-based papers, articles and management cases on topics of contemporary aspects in all areas of management and social science issues affecting business environment. While sending contributions the following guidelines must be carefully followed. Contributions that do not stick to the guidelines will not be considered.

1. Manuscripts submitted to the journal will be initially screened by the editors. Those considered inappropriate will be returned promptly to the sender. Manuscripts that pass the initial screening will follow a double blind refereeing process. They will be passed to a regional or country editorial board member who will consider its value in relation to regional concerns, where required. They will also be reviewed by an expert in the discipline area concerned. Neither the editors nor the journal will accept responsibility for errors, omissions, loss or damage to manuscripts. Upon acceptance of a paper, the author(s) will be requested to provide an electronic copy of the paper, compatible with Microsoft Word.
2. The selection of papers for publication will be based on their relevance, clarity, topicality and originality; the extent to which they advance knowledge, understanding and application; and their likely contribution towards inspiring further development and research. The Journal tries to maintain a balance between purely research oriented papers and those derived mainly from the experiences of practitioners involved in different areas of management.
3. Two copies of the manuscript should be submitted and author's details must be printed on a separate sheet and the author should not be identified anywhere else in the article. Manuscripts should not exceed 7,500 words (about 15 A-4 size pages, typed one and half space only on one side of the paper. Author/s' name should not appear on any other page. Submit an abstract of about 200 words. The articles should be in clear, coherent and concise English. Author/s should also send a copy of the contribution in MS-word, Times New Roman font, by e-mail to: karampalhsb@gmail.com or karampalsingh@yahoo.com. The hard copy and electronic files must match exactly. Author/s should also certify that the paper/case has not been published or submitted for publication elsewhere.
4. All material and editorial correspondence should be addressed to: The Editor, HSB Research Review, Haryana School of Business, Guru Jambheshwar University of Science and Technology, Hisar-125001 (Haryana) Website: <http://www.gju.ernet.in>. The contributions received will be acknowledged immediately by e-mail. All correspondence with contributors will only be through e-mail. All papers/cases submitted for publication will be refereed on the 'double blind' system. Only those contributions which comply with the "Guidelines for Contributors" will be processed for publication.
5. Manuscripts not considered or not accepted for publication will not be sent back. Contributors whose contributions are accepted or rejected will be informed by e-mail only.
6. Tables and Figures should be given on separate page at the end of the paper. Please use minimum possible number of tables and graphs. Tables (each on a separate sheet) should be numbered consecutively in Arabic numerals and should be referred to in the text as Table 1, Table 2, etc. Tables should not duplicate results in graphs. The minimum amount of descriptive text should be used on graphs and drawings (label curves, points, etc. with single letter symbols). Graph axes should be labelled with variables written out in full, along the length of the axes, with the unit in parenthesis. Each figure and illustration should be on a separate sheet. The location of tables, figures and graphs in the text should be indicated as follows: Table 1 about here.
7. The book review should normally not exceed 1,000 words. All notes should be indicated by serial number in the text, and literature cited should be detailed under notes at the end of the paper bearing corresponding numbers, before the references. Follow British spellings throughout (programme, not program).
8. No stops after abbreviations (USA, ILO). Use stops after initials (A.K. Sen).
9. Use double quotes throughout. The use of single quotes to be restricted for use within double quotes, e.g., "As Carter says the issue of 'providing best possible quality to the consumer and lowest possible cost' needs critical focus..." Quotations in excess of 45 words should be separated from the text with a line space above and below and indented on the left. Quotes should be cited accurately from the original source, should not be edited, and should give the page numbers of the original publications.

10. Italicization and use of diacriticals is left to the contributors, but must be consistent, when not using diacriticals, English spelling should be followed. Capitalization should be kept to the minimum and should be consistent.
11. Place the references at the end of the manuscript following the endnotes. The list should mention only those sources which have been actually cited in the text or notes. References should be complete in all respects and alphabetically arranged. Author/s' name should be the same as in the original source. You should cite publications in the text: (Adams, 2006) using the first named author's name or (Adams and Brown, 2006) citing either names of two, or (Adams et al., 2006), when there are three or more authors. At the end of the paper a reference list in alphabetical order should be supplied:
 - a) For books: Surname, Initials (year), Title of Book, Publisher, Place of publication. e.g. Harrow, R. (2005), No Place to Hide, Simon & Schuster, New York, NY.
