

Name of the Faculty Member: Prof. Usha Arora

Name of Activity: Case Laws and Mock Courts

Name of Course/PAPER: Business Legislation

Semester: III

Brief Description: Case laws is the most effective approach to make students understand a subject like business legislation. Students are introduced a concept and subsequently given a case law which is analysed by the students in groups. Mock courts are also organized to simulate real court in a class room and make students visualize and understand the intricacies involved in defending or fighting the case. It helps students understand how law is interpreted.
