

Faculty Member: Dr. Gourav Mittal

Name of Activity: My Perspective Matters: Expressive Communication Activity

Course & Section: M.Com Final

Date: March 16, 2026

Total Students: 34

Activity Type: Expressive Communication Activity

1. Main Goal of the Activity

This activity was done to help students improve their communication skills. The main goals were:

1. Express Own Ideas:
Students learned how to share their thoughts, opinions, and ideas clearly and confidently.
2. Understand Others:
Students practiced listening carefully to others and respecting different opinions.

2. How the Activity Worked

Students were divided into small groups so everyone could participate.

Each student had to:

1. Share Their View:
Speak about a given topic and explain their thoughts in simple words.
2. Take Part in Discussion:
Listen to other students and take part in group discussion.
3. Learn from Others:
Understand different viewpoints and share what they learned from others.

3. Learning Outcome

- Students became more confident in speaking.
- Their communication skills improved.
- They learned to listen to others patiently.
- They understood the importance of different opinions.