Short note on the Outstanding Scholars	SMT SAROJ BALA (born on April 04, 1949) is an IRS officer of 1972 batch and had retired as Member of CBDT. She has done M.A. in Political Science and holds a degree in LLB She made two very valuable contributions for improving the delivery of services to tax payers in India, one in the form of launching an annual publication titled, "Let us Share - A compilation of Best Orders and Best Practices in Income Tax Department" and the other an "Advanced Mid-Career International Training Program" for IRS officers. She was the first lady probationer in the history of Indian Revenue Service to be adjudged as the 'Best All Round Officer'. As Chief Commissioner she had revived the Income tax office in J & K after the terrorist attack in 2005 and as Director General (Training) at Nagpur, she had got conducted several training programs for tax administrators of foreign countries.

Smt. Saroj Bala is at present the Director of the Institute of Scientific Research on Vedas (I-SERVE) which was established in 2004 under the patronage of Late Shri R. Venkataraman, former President of India. I-SERVE is registered as an NGO and has the following objectives :-

* To establish synergy between ancient scientific wisdom and modern sciences with the objective of developing nature-friendly technologies particularly in areas like agriculture, energy and medicine.

*To carry out research into the authenticity and historicity of events narrated in ancient books by making use of modern scientific tools, which could develop shared pride amongst all Indians in our rich heritage.

Currently, she is working as the Chief Research Co-ordinator of the Research project o I-SERVE titled 'Cultural Continuity from Rigveda to Robotics: depiction through sky simulations of astronomical references and supporting scientific evidences'. This involves extraction, translation and sequential dating of astronomical references in ancient Sanskrit literature, particularly in Vedas and Epics, by making use of Planetarium software and establishing co-relation with ecological, archaeological, geological & anthropological evidences for scientific reconstruction of the history of the Indian subcontinent.

First national seminar on this subject was organized on 30-31 July, 2011, which was inaugurated by late Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, who whole heartedly supported in this research project. In fact our research basically provides detailed scientific evidences supporting the facts stated by this Great Son of India! Many eminent scholars and scientists from all over India had participated. Thereafter Smt. Saroj Bala had authored the books with under mentioned titles :-

1. “Historicity of Vedic and Ramayan Eras : Scientific Evidences from the Depths of Oceans to the Heights of Skies” &
